Tuition and Fees
The program cost for summer 2016 is $4,500. This price includes tuition, admissions to archaeological sites and museums, field trips, hotel costs at double or triple occupancy (single occupancy has an additional cost), daily breakfast, and special welcoming and farewell dinners with the group. Airfare to/from Italy, passport fees, and other individual expenses are not included in this cost.

Application Deadlines
December 3, 2015 and February 4, 2016

Academics
Upon successful completion of the program, Georgetown students receive three GU undergraduate credits for the following course: CLSS-225-62: The Ancient City of Rome, or three GU graduate credits for the following course: HIST-533-62: The Ancient City of Rome. The undergraduate course will also be cross-listed with History and Art History and can count for the History and Art History major or minor. The course can also count for the College HALC core requirement.

Non-Georgetown students should discuss transfer of credit with a dean or academic adviser at their home university.

Students who participate on this summer program and the Florence - The City and its Image program at the Villa le Balze will be eligible to receive a scholarship towards their summer abroad. Students interested in applying for both programs must contact summerabroad@georgetown.edu for assistance with opening two online applications.

The Program Directors are Dr. Josiah Osgood and Dr. Tommaso Astarita. Professor Osgood holds a Ph.D. in Classics from Yale University and teaches ancient history and Latin at Georgetown. Professor Astarita, a native of Italy, holds a Ph.D. in History from Johns Hopkins University and teaches European history at Georgetown.

Withdrawals, Refunds, and Cancellation

Your acceptance form and program deposit are considered a good-faith commitment to participate on your Georgetown University summer program. Withdrawal from a summer program must be made in writing to the summer program coordinator. Please note that application fees and program deposits are non-refundable. Georgetown University will refund recoverable tuition and costs as determined by our partner institutions. Refunds will be calculated from the date the Office of Global Education is notified in writing of your intent to withdraw. Georgetown University is not responsible for indirect costs paid directly by the student, including but not limited to passport fees, vaccinations, and transportation costs.

Georgetown University reserves the right to adjust program fees or cancel any program without prior notification; however, every effort will be made to provide information on cancellations in a timely manner. In the event of cancellation, Georgetown University will refund program deposits and 100% of recoverable program fees.
